DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of Species C of figures 14-16 in the reply filed on October 24, 2005 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).
2. Claims 1-23 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 24-28 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 14, 15, and 19-21 of copending Application No. 10/409,409. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the difference between the claims of this application and the claims of the copending application lies in the fact that the copending claims are more specific. Therefore, the claims of this application are anticipated by the claims of the copending application, and they are not patentably distinct from the copending application claims.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 24-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bergersen (5,645,420). Bergersen discloses a removable elastic positioning appliance comprising a shell shaped to receive and reposition teeth, the shell having at least one protrusion 60 which contacts at least one received tooth to assist in holding the appliance in position (column 7 line 48).

Figures 6-9 show the protrusion configured to contact an interdental area, contact a tooth along at least a portion of its gingival margin, and contact a tooth along the gingival margin and interdental areas. The protrusion is mountable on the appliance.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Parker (5,267,862) is cited to show the state of the art with respect to a dental appliance.
